"It was a pleasure working with you and your team on the GUESS? 20th Anniversary party fashion show. Your execution of my vision for the GUESS? Fashion show was amazing. With every detail you were able to bring to life the feeling and images from our GUESS? campaigns. The gorgeous hand painted runway, the romantic backdrop and the beautiful bamboo chairs detailed with beaded pillows set the scene for what was truly an extravagant performance. Your dedication, professionalism and perfect execution contributed to the overall success of the celebration."

"Carl George and his business partner Rich Morrissey are LUXEVENTS, a full service event production and design firm. I can attest to their abilities as producers and designers, their ability to handle complex, multi-faceted events and to work seamlessly with talent, staff and vendors. My experience with Carl included production aspects of the Academy Awards Ceremony and American Idol at the Kodak Theatre. I recommend them as real professionals in the business."

“Platinum Guild International, USA has had the pleasure of working with you and your team on several projects now, and we couldn’t be happier. We have found your professionalism, creativity, impeccable taste and attention to every detail very helpful, especially in our larger productions. The fashion shows, as well as the press and stylist events you have produced for us are among the best we have ever done. We consider you a part of our team now and couldn’t imagine doing a show without you!”

“I have had the pleasure of knowing Carl George both personally and professionally for many years. His exquisite aesthetic is only surpassed by his resourcefulness. Carl’s impeccable sense of style paired with his knowledge of what’s current, what’s historic and what’s ahead of the curve make him an invaluable resource. Events created by Carl and his partner Rich at LUXEVENTS are always delightfully memorable.”
